Name of your business.

Wahh, what's this?

More and more bad news, big or small, are emerging in Boshlake city while people living there are not even aware that they are getting into troubles.

A man on Bus 22 grabbed the wheel, causing 7-car accident just because he wanted to get off at a non-stop spot while refused.

Man set a restaurant on fire as he suspected the chef cheated in seasoning.

A middle-aged man swindled money out of several men by playing girl in online relationship.

Another murder in a rich community? The victim...

I have a bad feeling about this. Although there were wars because of humanity's depravity, bad emotions have never gathered up so fast and lingered on for so long. Or maybe something is materializing them?

Is something bad really happening in human world? Hey, did your talism spell send back anything?

Yes. Seems like he's living in the rich community, Zisoufa. It's not easy to sneak in...

Speaking of which, what's your plan? My clan asked me to go back ASAP.

I haven't made up my mind. Though there are people in the wechat group and they were planning on going back. I just feel there are too many word things that I can't just let go.

I'm in?
(Are you both going home?)

Liu lu lu?
(Are you leaving too?)

Come back with me, baby.
My hometown is a fun place. It has various jade marbles!

Alright, fine, we're not leaving as my baby stays.

Are you out of your mind?
You're doomed, cat owner.

(The smell outside the window feels familiar. Feels like...)

Damn! I want it this way and it's none of your business!

Howl

Something is wrong with the wind!

Away from the window!

Boom

Why don't you tell me?

Was my dad mad at you?

Your dad asked me to take you back. You've been out for too long.

Dad?

Cats' world!

Pounding!

Pounding!

Not everyone can get inside an Elder Demon's place. Even me can only put the package at the door.

Is baby going back? I can send him back.

Elder Demon? When did Tiamon become one of the Elder Demons?

Dad makes really good fish. I'm starting to miss him...

Then go back with me. Human world is getting more dangerous. Your dad is very worried about you.

But, I don't want to go back yet...

You shouldn't have been out. Come on, go back with me.

You're lying! If it was dangerous, why did he let Luan come here?

It's exactly because human world is going into troubles that your dad sent Luan as a slight hope to save the world..

Now, come back with me!

Seems our clan's worries are reasonable....

Troubles?

Hope?

I'm not leaving anyway!

Now that you don't want to go with me, you can stay here for the time being. But your dad will come for you after he finishes things at hand. You can't be so headstrong anymore by that time.

My dad?
He's coming?

Cough

Howl

I should go now.

As God of Wind left, a street sign fell down under a gust of wind

Kind?
It's all just hypocrisy!

Dahl

Cracks

Well, we shall see. I'll tear apart human's hypocritical masks myself
